Columbia man arrested for felony driving offense

Ashland Police arrested Johnathan Woodall, of Columbia, for a felony driving offense.

On Tuesday, January 26, an officer was conducting traffic enforcement in the city of Ashland. During a traffic stop, the officer identified Woodall as the operator of the motor vehicle. Upon checking his driving status, the officer discovered Woodall's driving privilege was revoked. Records showed three prior convictions for driving while revoked.

Woodall was arrested for felony driving while revoked. He was transported to the Boone County Jail and made to post bond.

The Ashland Police Department remains committed to working with other law enforcement agencies and community partners to curb criminal activity with the city and surrounding area. Citizens are reminded they can contact APD via Boone County Joint Communications (911, or 311 for non-emergencies) or anonymously report criminal activity and tips to CrimeStoppers at 573-875-8477.

All suspects are considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
