Ashland woman arrested after assault with a knife

Ashland Police arrested Maxine Ogelsby, of Ashland, following a disturbance on April 15.

On Thursday, April 15, 2021, an Ashland officer responded to the 100 block of S. College Ave. for a disturbance. During the investigation, the officer determined Ogelsby had thrown a knife at another person, striking the person in the back.

Ogelsby was arrested on suspicion of domestic assault in the second degree and armed criminal action. She was transported to the Boone County Jail and made to post bond.

The Ashland Police Department remains committed to working with other law enforcement agencies and community partners to curb criminal activity within the city and surrounding area. Citizens are reminded they can contact APD via Boone County Joint Communications (911, or 311 for non-emergencies) or anonymously report criminal activity and tips to CrimeStoppers at 573-875-8477.

All suspects are considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
