Columbia man arrested for felony

Ashland Police arrested Jamie Mason, of Columbia, following a traffic stop on March 11.

On Thursday, March 11, 2021, an Ashland officer was conducting traffic enforcement. During a traffic stop, the officer identified the driver as Mason and discovered him to have multiple outstanding felony warrants. The officer attempted to arrest Mason; Mason actively resisted the officer. The officer ultimately was able to secure Mason.

Mason was arrested for the outstanding warrants, with the added charge of felony resisting arrest. He was transported to the Boone County Jail where he was made to post bond.

The Ashland Police Department remains committed to working with other law enforcement agencies and community partners to curb criminal activity within the city and surrounding area. Citizens are reminded they can contact APD via Boone County Joint Communications (911, or 311 for non-emergencies) or anonymously report criminal activity and tips to CrimeStoppers at 573-875-8477.

All suspects are considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
